From 1 July 2024, ABN registered non-charitable not-for-profit (NFP) organisations will be required to lodge an annual NFP self-review return to the ATO confirming their income tax status.

Assistant Commissioner Jennifer Moltisanti from the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) will be joining us at this breakfast event to provide updates on important reporting changes affecting NFPs.

During her presentation, Jennifer will cover:

- An overview of the NFP sector and what attracts the ATO's attention.
- The new reporting requirements for self-assessing income tax exempt organisations.
- How NFPs can prepare for the reporting requirements.
- An update on Deductible Gift Recipient (DGR) reforms.
- Updates on Public Advice and Guidance.

This event will provide essential information for NFPs to ensure they are ready for the upcoming changes and feature Assistant Commissioner Jennifer Moltisanti's expert guidance with respect to meeting ongoing tax obligations.
